

'Let's Learn'

We have been learning about:

16.10.17

This week we had lots of fun exploring as part of Black History Week! We spent time learning about Barrack Obama and his very important job as president of America. We thought briefly about jobs we might do and will continue to explore this idea further in our future learning. We also spent time making maps of the world and naming and labelling the continents. We read the story of "Handa's Surprise" and talked about how we can be good friends to each other. We also made lists of the fruit that 'disappeared'!

In our reading we have been continuing to practise our sight words and are working very hard to learn to say them at sight.

Thank you for all your efforts and hard work. Please keep practising them at home.

Finally we spent a whole day moving around the school completing a range of activities as part of our school Diwali day. This was a wonderful experience for the children to get to know other members of staff, classrooms and of course interact with other children within the school. The children were really buzzing about their day and we all felt it was a wonderful experience.

Please talk to your child about what they did and learned during the day.
