

The Big Bang!

We began our week by reading the story of 'the big bang!' - thinking carefully about how the solar system began.

Using collage materials, we created pictures of what we thought 'the Big Bang' might look like.

We talked about the planets that were formed and listened to some music about them.

